

FREE 'Train the Trainer' events

for teaching staff in primary, secondary and post 16 education

Funded by

Department for Education

Teaching for Neurodiversity Engaging learners with SEND

Learn about:

- ✓ The range of neurodiversities
- ✓ How different Specific Learning Difficulties (SpLDs) overlap
- ✓ Identifying the signs of SpLDs
- ✓ Teaching strategies to support learners with neurodiversity
- ✓ How to pass knowledge learnt on to your colleagues

Take away:

- ✓ Tools to help identify and build SpLD profiles
- ✓ Access to informative resources on neurodiversity and SpLDs
- ✓ Information about how to signpost for further action
- ✓ Knowledge and skills to help you and your team meet the requirements of the SEND Code of Practice

FREE events across England from Sept 2016

Max 2 teaching or learning support staff from primary/secondary schools with additional places potentially available for larger post-16 education providers. Please note, we require commitment from both the education provider and attendees to cascade training to all colleagues and to complete evaluation questionnaires.

For more information contact

Dyslexia Action: trainthetrainer@dyslexiaaction.org.uk

Helen Arkell: DfETraining@arkellcentre.org.uk

Patoss: trainthetrainer@patoss-dyslexia.org

Working together to empower educators to cater for Special Educational Needs

