

Sheffield Governance Conference

Saturday 29th June 2019, 9.30-12.30pm

Learn Sheffield Training & Development Hub
Lees Hall Road, Sheffield, S8 9JP

‘What are the key governance priorities now?’

A conference to consider the priorities for Governing Bodies and Trust Boards at this pivotal time in education.

What is the role of high quality governance in ensuring that every child receives a world class education?

Emma Knights

Emma Knights OBE, is Chief Executive of the National Governance Association (NGA) - the leading charity for guidance, research, advice and training for school governors and trustees. Emma has worked in a number of roles in the voluntary sector, particularly in the Legal Services Commission, Citizens Advice and the Local Government Association. As well as leading projects on child poverty and educational attainment, Emma has written on a wide range of topics and is co-author of the NGA’s Chair’s Handbook.

Estelle Morris

Estelle Morris, Baroness Morris of Yardley was a Member of Parliament for Birmingham Yardley from 1992 to 2005 and served in the Cabinet as Education Secretary.

She is also a former Pro Vice-Chancellor of the University of Sunderland and is currently Chair of the Birmingham Education Partnership.
