Roll up roll up!
The first conference is now open for booking...

We are delighted to announce that booking for the Sheffield Cultural Education Partnership launch conference has now opened. We've called the conference IGNITE SHEFFIELD.

The launch conference is happening all day on Friday 2nd February 2018 at the Crucible Theatre in Sheffield.

The day will be a mixture of practical workshops and fantastic speakers. Speakers will include Chris Husbands (Sheffield Hallam Vice Chancellor), Pete Massey (Arts Council England), Stephen Betts (Learn Sheffield) and Kim Streets (Museums Sheffield and Sheffield Culture Consortium) and others.

It will be a combination of inspiration (telling you why we think this is a great idea and one you should be part of), information (telling you what the S-CEP is and what it will do) and inclusion (including you in the dreaming and visioning of the first three years).

Come and find out what this movement is all about, and how YOU and your organisation can be part of something that will be transformative across Sheffield.

Tickets are £25 per person - which covers refreshments and lunch.

City of Young Makers: Make-Create-Innovate 2018-2020

We have a new theme! We are delighted to announce that one of the ways in which we will be working strategically across Sheffield is with a theme. And we have decided that our theme for the FIRST THREE YEARS of the S-CEP will be City of Young Makers: Make-Create-Innovate. We think it's great - and we hope you do too. Come to our launch conference and help us dream up all of the projects that will be connected to the theme....

Seasons greetings to you all

Wishing you all happy holidays and a wonderful 2018.
