

STANDING ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (SACRE)

Does your school want to ensure that it is delivering a broad RE curriculum which includes different religions, beliefs and world views?

RE in school life today is just as important as other curriculum subjects. Through interaction with other people from different communities of religion, belief and world views, it allows children and young people the opportunity to stimulate their thinking, develop understanding and improve learning skills.

SACRE is well established in Sheffield and members can support schools in a voluntary capacity with:

- Collective Worship
- Bringing learning to life in the classroom through an authentic voice of belief
- Opportunity to encourage and explore spiritual and moral development

Sheffield SACRE has representatives from different Religions, Faiths and World Views:

Buddhism

Christianity

Humanist

Hinduism

Islam

Judaism
