

Understanding Christianity Sheffield Schools Offer

“Understanding Christianity” is a resource developed by RE Today that provides depth in subject material about Christianity while maintaining open-minded enquiry. It ties in well with Sheffield’s Agreed Syllabus, and offers a rich RE training experience for participants.

Training involves two full days and two twilights.

The course is free.

You just need a teacher to train.

You can find out more at: www.understandingchristianity.org.uk

We are running it again this year and, in our Diocese, the course is free to Schools.

Training is delivered by Huw Thomas, Diocesan Director of Education and involves two full days and two twilights. Training days will be 20th November, and 20th March, 9.00 – 3.00, plus two twilights (3:00-5:00) on 31st January and 18th June

Venue: Church House Rotherham.
